

Transcript: “Man on the Street” California College Promise Grant ” – English (YouTube)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=R2bGQdTPQX8>

Duration: 1 minute, 53 seconds

Speaker: Interviewer – We are here at California Community Colleges asking students if they know what the BOG Fee Waiver stands for.

On Screen: [What does BOG stand for?]

Speaker: Student – Ummm...

Speaker: New student – Uh...stands for like...

Speaker: New student – Better off Gucci?

Speaker: New student – What?

Speaker: New student – Bag of grapes?

Speaker: New student – Beards on gold fish?

Speaker: New student – Book of gold, maybe.

Speaker: New student – Is this a trick question?

Speaker: New student – Bowl of gummies or something like that.

Speaker: New student – Is it somebody's name, some guy named Bog?

Speaker: New student – Band of gorillas?

Speaker: New student – Barack Obama government.

Speaker: New student – Board of Governors.

Speaker: New student – Board of Governors.

Speaker: New student – Board of Governors Fee Waivers.

On Screen: [CORRECT!

Board of Governors Fee Waiver

BUT...

the name is changing to...]

Speaker: New student – California.

Speaker: New student – College.

Speaker: New student – Promise Grant.

Speaker: New student – California.

Speaker: New student – College.

Speaker: New student – Promise Grant.

Speaker: New student – California College.

Speaker: New student – Promise Grant.

Speaker: New student – California College Promise Grant.

Speaker: New students, rapping – Hey, California College Promise Grant!

On Screen: [California College Promise Grant

But... What is it?]

Speaker: New student – I have no clue.

Speaker: New student – I don't know.

Speaker: New student – Something having to do with class money or something, I think.

Speaker: Narrator – California College Promise Grant is a statewide commitment to help Californians pursue their higher education goals by waiving tuition fees.

On Screen: [“California College Promise Grant”, with visuals of an outline of California with college location indicators, graduation cap and diploma, and a crossed-out coin that has a money sign on it.

“What would you buy with the money you save?”]

Speaker: New student – Books.

Speaker: New student – Books.

Speaker: New student – Books.

Speaker: New student – Books.

Speaker: New student – Books.

Speaker: New student – For rent, food.

Speaker: New student – Gas money.

Speaker: New student – A car, which is very needed.

Speaker: Back to narrator – In addition, many of our local community colleges offer their own promise partnerships to help also pay for books, supplies, and other expenses.

On Screen: [“Local Community Colleges”, with visuals of books, a laptop and cup of pens and pencils, and a bus with a bag of groceries in front of it.]

And many local promise programs even cover tuition fees if you don't qualify for the California College Promise Grant.

On Screen: [Money you save from having fees waived through the California College Promise Grant can be used for other educational costs.]

Check with your financial aid office to see what's available and get assistance on completing your application.

On Screen: [Your Local Community College. Financial Aid Office. Get Assistance With Your Application]

Speaker: New student – Why not take advantage of what's given to you?

Speaker: New student – I'm gonna go online to icanaffordcollege.com.

Speaker: Back to narrator – For more information and to apply, visit icanaffordcollege.com.

On Screen: [For more information and to apply, visit icanaffordcollege.com

Brought to you by the California Community Colleges]

End of Transcript